DREAM:

04,00:XX:XX  Flames and yellow leaves; detached, friendly, bemused.
08,00:08:XX War in the jungle like Vietnam. I am an American soldier. I move on from one situation to the next, seeing people being ambushed and killed. I don't see blood. I am trying to survive. I negotiate to keep alive! I move alone in the jungle. I came across a native and another American soldier. The native offered to smoke dope with me and the American soldier. A Vietnamese soldier then took them both away. I felt always in danger. I moved at night. Then I came out of the jungle to the seashore. I see rocks there, I see a woman who is my maid. She is with her family. Then we walked to my house, which is a tropical wooden structure, I hear two women talking, one of them says it's going to be a long night. I get the feeling that one of them is sick, then I feel that I can help that person who is sick.

08,00:10:XX I am at the hair salon with my daughter. The women walking they were wearing sexually explicit costumes - G-string and bare bottoms. They wore bright colors - flamingo pink, bright orange, lemon yellow. Why am I here? The woman doing my hair offers to give me a costume to wear, and if I wear the costume she will give me a body sized picture of myself. It is a whole body suit with a yellow collar with texture like a stuffed animal. I said I was too old for that but I wanted my picture taken, but not in the costume.

08,00:10:XX About a toy that helps teach my daughter to count. There are buttons to learn to count by. I see electricity running inside the toy, then it transforms into something bigger. I thought about how I can send this to my sister for her children.

06,00:13:XX Scotty dog lying on the kitchen floor, 4 legs spread out -- my family was home and I said Ok guess we have to keep him, he has no place to go.

08,01:00:XX I am outside of the store that belongs to this older man who is a friend or relative. Then a bus comes by and a man comes out of the bus. I now that he is planning to rob the store. I warned the owner and get the owner to duck under the counter.

08,01:10:XX I am at the house I grew up in. There are trees in the back yard. The soil is compacted, I am using a hose to wet the area. Some friends are helping to put construction material around. I am trying to make the place look nice. I bring in the hanging plants to put among the trees.

05,01:37:30 Vivid, realistic dream in the present. Going back from a class at night, I have my book and my laptop computer with out the carrying case. This makes it awkward and obvious that it's a laptop. One of the women in our group (of 5 or 6) needs to stop by her apt first. We find ourselves walking into a slum, desolate dwelling, and outside is the middle of the 4 buildings, (which created a black and white effect--the color in the dream stopped) were African-Americans--they were dark Black-large round eyes-staring. They barely moved but stared. Her apt was close by in and out. Left the plaza and went to a small corner store where the owner (an old black woman) was concerned about our safety. She gave us tips on how to survive and sent us on our way. My friends did not seem distressed. I felt sort of safe, but an ominous feeling prevailed. We went out to the parking lot there was a very small car. They decided to get in and back it out of a tight parking space, so myself and another person would get in in just a minute. The driver backed out quickly (60mph) and struck another car, they both blew-up in flames, THEIR SOULS EXITED THE BURNING CAR AND WERE ASCENDING TO HEAVEN, and demons were busy trying to pick them off on the way. I felt stunned and relieved. I couldn't believe this just happened.

03,02:XX:XX  Supervisor telling her to write things down.  NS.

07,02:08:XX  Dreamt about playing basketball. I don't play basketball--don't remember too much more about the dream. NS

08,02:10:XX  I am in CR (Costa Rica) where I used to live. Cooking a dinner for the people past, present and future, whom I have issues with. I remember saying this in the dream, as I am waking up.

07,02:13:30  Went to N's soccer game and one of his teammates had broken his leg playing basketball. (Coincidence?).

05,02:17:00  In some kind of trouble and an Irish Schoolteacher (set in turn of century) risks her job to help, she's strong willed, and spirited and unafraid.

08,03:XX:XX  Getting ready for an event with all these women. Fixing the road. Went into the house and I see this hole in the ground. The texture of the soil is smooth and reddish. I realize the stone on the side of the hole is to warn people of the hole. So I - went in. Those women around... there is a competitive feeling in the air among the women. I go in a back room put this dress on see myself in the mirror looks good. Then turn my body to see the back in the mirror and a piece of material that should go under the neck of the dress is hanging out. The feeling is I need to look good and now I won't because of this. Realized how silly to store all the offenses very carefully to remember them when I need to throw ugliness at people. I now realize how that is festering in my body creating illness.
I'd rather forgive and forget. When I think this my body relaxes.

05,03:77:00 Conflict/struggle had difficulty under-standing what to do in a school setting, a teacher helped. Had feelings of being pressured and decided not to do it. I actively resisted suggestions--fought back.

04,04:09:00 Breaking drinking glasses - broken glass pitcher and one jelly glass - into rings, not shards. DREAM: Lost in an emergency room in a hospital.

06,04:13:XX I was supposed to teach a homeopathic 2 day course. I didn't feel prepared to do it and didn't know why I was teaching the course when the people in the course were so much more experienced than I. A woman started talking and ran all day and I was relieved I didn't have to teach.
I left the hotel the course was being offered at and was hit on the passenger side of my car by an old white-beige colored car. I pulled over and a blond haired woman with long fingernails tried to get in. I had my window up and locked the doors and drove off -- realizing the woman was with the car that hit me and it was a set-up. I couldn't find the hotel and was out all night and found it in the AM. My hair was greasy and I needed a shower and it was time for class. I wouldn't make it. I had to get cleaned up. I was somewhat relieved because I wouldn't make the class but wiry from the experience.

05,04:103:00 Had one dream, forgot it. In AM: Woman came up to me and said, "tonight we can go into this Time vortex--go back to first time Beatles played on Ed Sullivan" I refused--she got REALLY MAD. (he has dream Recorded in detail).

07,05:XX:XX I had some dreams last night -- I just remember snatches. I was involved with some guy I had just met. He was wild. We were screwing and afterward realized it was a mistake and I probably was pregnant. Thinking I could get another abortion. Thinking it would have been a good idea to put a diaphragm in my purse just in case. Thought about the dream I kept thinking about being pregnant. We were in someone's house. There was some danger. I slid down a snow covered embankment to rescue someone who had been shot. He was inside a house at bottom of hill and glad to see me. A bad guy got killed by a tiger. I believe the tiger was protecting our territory. Or maybe it was one of us that got killed trying to sneak onto the bad guy's territory.

07,05:XX:XX It was night. I came outside to get some fresh air. J was there. (someone I haven't seen since 1981, we had been best friends but had a falling out, still bother about it) I was happy to see her, we moved to the back yard to talk. I thought I should adjust the lights in the back and went inside to do so. Realized it was the house I grew up in, in Palm Beach. I was asking my mother if that was a blueberry tree outside the door. Feeling: WISTFULNESS, SADNESS AT OLD FRIENDS AND OLD HOUSE (we moved to KY with my mother after my parents divorced. I always missed my friends there and that wonderful house).

05,05:149:00 (he had watched the last part of "The Shining")

Fragments--guys came in saying "this is how it's going to be" But I refused, I popped "em in the head (they pushed it to a physical level) "I don't want to do this" hit them in the face, got their attention - "you don't know it but you are NOT going to push me into unfamiliar territory--I can go as far as you want to take this thing"

They backed off.

05,05:149:00 Recreation of "The Shining" I've been having dreams of TV shows and situations that I've been in. Conversations or dramatic scenes on TV that are replayed. I don't usually have recreation dreams. Most of these dreams are disturbing.

05,05:149:00 AM: These guys come in demanding I do something that I didn't want to do. I refused -- they come at me again, putting pressure on me to conform. We don't talk but stare down - the feeling we exchange is that I am not about to do what I do not want to. If they want to try to get physical, it is OK with me. I can go there, too. They sense the conviction and back off.

08,06:XX:XX Dream I am in a building I do not recognize, and I am with a baby. It is a baby girl. I am changing her and I put my hand over her crotch and feel sexually aroused. Immediately I catch myself and say to myself What are you doing?! this is sexual abuse! This is incest! The feeling is I am horrified and worried for the baby. It dawns on me that just this single incidence can be traumatic for the baby. With a great deal of worry I check her face to see if she is showing any indication that confirms that what just happened was raumatic to her. I feel shame while I tell this to Walter and I feel disturbed, horrified that my subconscious mind can produce something like that in a dream. Does that mean that at some level that is in me? Have I done something like that in any lifetime?
This dream was upsetting and continued to be upsetting for several weeks.

06,06:15:XX  With myself and a friend and a few other people, I didn't know she was trying to sort out a money situation --who owed what. I was a little annoyed and thought it humorous -- what was the big deal, everything had to be even as far as each person.

07,07:XX:XX  I had a dream I remembered. YEA!!! I had to get home because someone told me my birds were out of their cages and were dying. They had not been fed for awhile. I had neglected them. I felt horrible and began to run home. I was running barefoot on sidewalks but the sidewalks were covered with small pieces of broken glass. This was in the city. My feet were tough so I kept running. At a certain point I stepped to pick the glass from my feet. A couple of men, African-Americans, came over to help me pick all the glass from one foot and then the other. They were quite nice and concerned. I asked them how all the glass got there and it turns out they did it - just having fun breaking bottles, not thinking of the consequences. They wore shoes, so it didn't matter to them that glass was on the sidewalk. I told them they really should clean it up. They offered or I asked for a ride home. My feet were sore. But the car took too long in coming and I continued on my way. On the way home, I thought I've got to leave signs around my house to "FEED THE BIRDS" so that I will remember and not ignore them. Maybe I should put the birds in a part of the house where I will see them more often. On the way home I saw a bird in an aviary outside and I thought what a nice place for a bird - maybe I can find a place in the shade for my bird. When I got home and entered the porch or sun room I saw some very tiny raccoons - just born. I wondered how or WHY they would have come into my house. I was intrigued watching them and was pleased they had chosen my house to come to. There were several of them in all sizes - some looked like cats. I was relieved to find another person outside taking care of them and making sure they were all right. I think the birds were OK. I woke up before I actually went into their room to see about them.

05,08:00:00 I was strongly opposed to negative thoughts. I fought strongly to stay focused and did not give in to depressing/victimizing thoughts or distractions. Kept on course.

08,09:XX:XX Slept late again- .... Deck/sidewalk made out of stone with walls that go up to the waist; like a rail of stone. Sense of medieval time. Sense that the sea is beyond that deck but I don't see it. I stand close to a big door looking at this man that [who] is sweeping the floor of this deck-sidewalk thing. His broom is made out of sticks with small branches at the end gathered in a bunch and tied around a pole. There are lots of little mounds of dog shit or animal shit all over. He goes around sweeping, pushing the shit from 1 place to another trying to gather it, it is not sticky shit, but somewhat dried up shit. He is ranting and raving about the stupid idea of building this sidewalk, now he has to clean the shit on it. I start to help him clean the shit but I don't see myself using a broom, I am wondering how he will discard it. No dumpster or bag in 08,09:XX:XX  I am walking on this reddish dirt road that comes out of this castle-like brown building. There are walls on side of road. Everyone is riding a bicycle. Some people very skillfully make their way with their bike thru the crowded street, I am thinking there is no way I'll make it here riding a bike. I look at the bikes again they almost touch each other with the pedals. Am imagining if someone touches my bike I'll fall or I will be bouncing all over the place, fear of ridicule or embarrassment!

08,09:XX:XX  My nephew come[s] to live with my mother, my sister and me. He is 13 or 14. I am maybe 20. He doesn't have any place to stay [in reality He [he] has been getting into trouble] I have the sense in the dream that he is trouble. I am looking for my green dress and I don't find it. I look everywhere, not there. I know he got it and I ask him where it is. I am angry and get out of the house to go and look for my mother. I am running down this long road. Didn't find my mother. On my way back I am going down these hilly roads and I am sliding with my feet as if I had roller blades or skis [skis] i am going so fast; at times fun at times scary. Come home.
My mother who is now a man is trying to force open the door because I left the keys inside. I say I am sorry and start accusing my nephew of stealing my clothes. I humiliate him he goes somewhere in the back yard and comes back wearing my beautiful like teasing me.I am so furious I tell my mother he cannot stay here he has to go. the feeling: all I care about is my clothes which are beautiful. I don't care about my nephews situation who doesn't have a place to go.
07,09:XX:XX  Slept well last night. I dreamt, but can't quite remember what they were about. One about my 10 year old son being sick and wondering if he would ever get well. There was worry but it didn't seem serious.

05,10:00:00 I was in situation where forces were opposing me. I felt like I was barely winning the struggle. I felt like I was struggling (usually in dreams I don't work so hard at this stuff.) I can do lurid dreaming and stop this kind of shit. I finally stood up to these other worldly forces and said NO!!! and it really changed!! I was comfortable after that and was able to relax more.

05,11:00:00 I'm in an opulent house, at a cocktail reception. We're all wearing formal clothing. I'm feeling OK, but just OK. More tense than I'd like to be. I am introduced to Princess Diana of England. We get along and suddenly turn into school children dressed in private school uniforms (age 8 or 9) She leads me back through other rooms and quarters. We run around, going into places we're clearly not supposed to be in. We're playing, laughing, having a great time, running, hiding, holding hands, running down these gigantic, heavily decorated hallways. We hold hands again and begin to grow up. She becomes the likeness of a woman. As she grows up she looks like a likeness of a married woman whom I had an affair with (when I was single.) Hiding, naughty, and sexual thoughts begin. Then she changes to Princess Diana--we hold hands. Now I experienced warm, cuddly thoughts, walked down the hallway holding hands, looking in each other's eyes. A great connection, closeness without pressure. Feels 05,13:00:00 I was in the downstairs finished basement with dark paneling. I'm watching TV. My daughter (but not in real life) comes down and tells me there are ghosts/spirits disrupting things upstairs. I don't believe her until the ghosts come downstairs and open up louver doors and pull clothes out and throw them on the floor. They were moving furniture around. I couldn't think of what to do (a powerless feeling) in front of my kids also. Felt as if ghosts were thumbing their noses. I went upstairs and they started doing stuff upstairs. I felt panicked, disordered, pressure from my family to DO SOMETHING. I went downstairs again and they kept it up. Powerless (I usually don't feel this way in my dreams I usually could change it -- very uncomfortable and panicky with powerless feeling. Victim feeling strong.

05,15:XX:XX This morning woke up - weird sexual dream about my stepdaughter disturbing.

08,15:XX:XX I am in a building with people I intend to go to a certain part of the building. I take the elevator with a woman friend. We come out of the elevator, we both know we are in [on] the wrong floor or section. She leaves. I feel left alone to my own devices. Abandoned. I go back in the elevator and come out into another wrong section. I know I am totally lost. Feeling in the dream: Anxious, fearful of not finding my way. That I will be late or not there at all. Trying to retrace what I did but I cannot.
I am with this tall blond woman who is [x-husband] L’s wife. We are going to the edge of the river. She tells me that Lloyd died. We are both sad and talking about him [don't remember what]. We get in the river to bathe as we come back to the edge the water is running fast where we came in. I say: Oh my God! Let's find another place to come out that water is going to take us down.

I am at a copy/computer place getting prices and repairing some equipment that K [my daughter] delivered before. She is around some place in the store. I go to different section of the store and see Lloyd doing something [copies or labels] for the study group. A woman is helping him. I say "hi do you need any help?" They say "yes" and leave me with pasting these labels that don't fit on the paper right as I paste them they come unglued. I am getting impatient. Why did they leave me with this work? Then I am saying goodbye to the man that [who] was helping me with the equipment and bargaining about prices and joking with him. He has to make a call to the other place where I bought some of the equipment. I leave with K. Then I am home and realize I haven't watered this African violet that I get a sense came from Karen and I feel terribly guilty I let it die. The plant is not totally dead. I realize that the plant doesn't have the plate under the pot and I think that's why, it didn't hold water to keep it moist. I run to give it water.

Dry environment, trees not many leaves, dessert like but tropical. I am walking with S, my husband, enjoying nature looking for birds. I see snakes a lot of them, some are petrified and have a red color. I am fascinated by the petrified snakes. I keep walking marveled [marveling] at the sight. There was a baby one on top of the mother. I say, "look! It is petrified too" then I realize there is a live one at the end of the same branch the petrified 'mom' is in. At that point I am under the branches of the tree. S says watch out! I look up there is one hanging close to my head. It is then that it dawns on me this can be dangerous [being around snakes so close].

05,18:XX:XX I'm at a picnic party--celebrating the setting is warm/beautiful. Lots of people I know. Very comfortable. I have a kite that I want to fly while I'm in the middle of this crowd in the city. I decide to try it. A single line kite goes out of my hand whips straight into the sky -- out of the crowd past the telephone lines into the sky--no problem. Very freeing feeling. I surprise it went up so easy. Later on some business associates I know pull up in a car a couple blocks up the street. I see them get out with the numbers on their chest and they begin to run towards the finish line of a road race that we were having. I begin to realize they want to deceive us into thinking they were running the race. Their obvious deceit disgusts me and disappoints me. They posture themselves for public opinion--it's disappointing to me. Feel betrayed by their gap in integrity--especially when I try to keep mine and they expect this of me. What have they done this for? Didn't get angry at them, just thought what a waste of time to do that crap.

06,18:16:XX I went to the mailbox to pick up the mail and found there was moss and leaves (alive) in the box. I pulled it out and my mail was mixed in it.
07,20:XX:XX L carries a bag with him with a EKG strip on it. Looks like some form of bradycardia but I don't know enough to comment. Later in the hospital I realize that must be his rhythms and that he carries it around with him so in case he collapses medics will know what needs to be done. It's not good and I have a lot of compassion for him, but feel powerless to do anything.

08,22:XX:XX A check is flying in the air coming to my hands and I catch it. My attitude is one of a bit of doubt maybe it won't be enough.

05,26:XX:XX I'm back in high school as a student but my present age. I'm taking classes as an elective I have several choices that afternoon, but decide to choose Scuba diving since I'm already a certified diver. I'd love to go sign up. I have difficulty finding the area to meet the others. The first place I go is in a dark locker room--only a pallet of brightly colored T-shirts in the middle of the floor, and a single lit light bulb. I feel a little nervous because I can't find them. I'm afraid I'll miss the class. I hear them outside, I run by the pool (which we never had in H.S.) and I hear them outside. My wife is with me now. I take off my shoes and socks for some reason. Blue tennis shoes which I currently have. I go outside and they're gone. I believe I know which way they're heading so my wife and I will walk there. We get to the center of town, the instructor Bill (a current friend and Scuba instructor) is yelling out a 3rd floor window, what's going on with the class--simultaneously there is a loudspeaker going off in the square detailing shopping discounts and specials. I can't make anything out. I'm frustrated. I feel like I'm going to be left behind. I'm so close. I keep missing out. Then I feel as if I know where they are, so I go to get my wife who can't hear me because she's across the street in a shop behind a front window. I'm feeling anxious again because it feels like time is running out. She finally hears me and we walk back. I ask if it's OK that I run ahead and she says Ok. I run, but I still miss them. Nowhere to be found. I'm disappointed. I was so close. I find my tennis shoes and socks. My wife criticizes me for leaving them there to be stolen. We walk off. I'm feeling defeated.

06,34:16:XX  Last night I was giving a talk on acupuncture. Was prepared to give the talk to a lay audience. It turned out to be a group of acupuncturists. I got totally thrown off, then restarted and it was over.

05,38:XX:XX  Defending my home then community from some space/other dimensional beings. At first, felt overwhelmed by it, could not win physically. I was surrounded, outnumbered, they came falling from the sky.

  I woke up (for real) and spoke, "No fucking way I'm going to let these guys do this to me." I went back to sleep determined to win. Got back in the dream, relaxed, sat in meditating half-lotus and with visualizing (like an old Star Trek episode.) They were destroyed. No one knew how close they had come to invasion. I find this a bit melodramatic but had a great sense of accomplishment afterwards.

07,49:XX:XX  Being chased by a man, I believe it is someone I know but don't like. Kind of an endless chase with elaborate escape routes and places of hiding and traps for this beast. It didn't seem too scary. Seemed like I know it was a dream and looked on in interest.
I was the leader of a group who organized a large terrorist ransom deal with hostages. I just woke up there--in my role--I couldn't believe I had done this, but could not find a way to stop it. Found that the project and people were like a monster that I created--a living organism--no longer controlled by me. I felt desperate to stop it but did not know how. Decided to go with it but suffered self-humiliation. Felt weak by it.

More gloomy and irritable with family for most of the first part of the proving. Symptoms seemed to lift when I was able to be outside and garden or walk.

No desire to work [N.S. - SINCE BEGINNING OF PROVING].

Difficulty spelling (between 4 and 10PM). NS

In a class! wandering and watching people without feeling of involvement.

Foggy/sleepy feeling. Driving back from shopping at nurseries. Beautiful day, warm sun. Almost seemed other-worldly. Is this drug remedy?

Got home and felt like too much to do--house, work, yard. Overwhelmed. Where to begin. Would rather go to sleep and avoid thinking about it. AS 07,00:14:00  Ate lunch and felt better.

04,00:14:30  More chatty than usual. Supervisor observation: voice sounds peaceful, sing-songy, and musical.

04,01:XX:XX  Soft voiced.

03,01:XX:XX  Very pissed off at friend in afternoon. AS. Feeling of friend being inconsiderate. AS. Ready to tell friend off. NS. Sleeping a lot. AS.

03,01:10:XX  Spacey, hard to focus. NS. Misplacing things. AS. Anxiety re: work - none. CS. Sense of intoxication. NS. Feeling she shouldn't be driving. NS. No motivation re: work or anything. AS.

05,01:19:10  Was hungry, but was not after the remedy. I've been enjoying looking out the windows into the sunshine this AM. Feels connecting, fulfilling somehow, feeling relaxed and mellow more than usual.

04,01:20:30  "Spasm" of annoyance when a phone call was not returned by Lou. Unusual.

05,01:25:30  This afternoon I found out I had $5K less in my bank account than I thought. Opened to possibilities. Fired my bookkeeper and hired a new one. Fairly unemotional about it though. Nothing personal.
"I don't feel good, it's like an undertow." I want to close my eyes and not be present. I couldn't read. (My throat sx's are) "evanescent.

"I like all this attention"- Unusual for me to say something like this.

I feel high at edge of tree feeling as if I took Ecstasy. I thought about S, J, J, L and P. I feel at peace with them. I guess I willed the high.

Feeling so moved by my experience I have worked with these issues before but somehow this feels deeper. Deep level of awareness. keep crying. God bless this proving, I finally will clean it out. My eyes feel half closed, blurry, and dazed-like feeling, yet I feel close to Euphoria.

Whole day <. Gentle inebriation eve. Couldn't speak, like a stroke victim, I had to think how to say things. NS. Irritable in AM-picking on husband. AS. Eve. 7-10PM Perception of other people swaying. NS. Very relaxed and calm all day. NS.

Thoughts came with headache. Wake up with tremendous pressure over my right eye and around the Eye socket as the headache progresses and when in bed I get this kind of feeling. This is not bad compared to my migraines I used to have over 4 years ago. The first thought that comes to mind: This pain in head, shoulder and liver is the result of negative thought patterns stuck in me since childhood. It is the resentments that were modeled by the family, the manipulation through anger and guilt. The exploitation of my innocent child's feelings or emotions. I thought that was the way to be so I started acting the same though it felt harsh and destructive. I feel the need to pass my hands over the affected areas. As I do that I think you belong to the distant past. Kindness and acceptance now take the place of pun, negativity and ugliness. People come to mind that I recently have had issues with and a deep feeling of forgiveness takes place. I give you back what you gave me that was not nice and I take back what I gave that was not nice: In our experiences I validate what was positive and what I did that was good and the positive intentions I always had. As I touch every part in my body that is ailing I feel the part relaxing and the pain is easing off. In my mind I put kindness in my eye, my head, my shoulder, my liver I realize that kindness lacks in me when I enter into competition. I feel kindness being this expansion of my awareness in acceptance. After this the pulsing and the pressure in my eye is gone.

04,02:11:XX I watered my plants, without resistance, unusual for me.

06,02:22:XX (8 AM to noon) Rainy, dark day, feel a little down and irritated at things that usually don't bother me. Felt I could cry but didn't. Had errands to run and didn't bother. Noontime, tried calling a friend and my husband to talk to in order to get out of the mood. 8:30PM and I'm ready for bed.

05,02:53:00 For the day I felt energized, but heavy physically. I also felt certain levels of negativity (disgust, down thinking) that I struggled with in the afternoon. Gloom and down felt pulled downward into negativity.
03, 03:XX:XX  Bought plants.  AS.  Desire to do gardening all day.  AS.
Very irritable.  AS.  Forgetfulness.  AS.  Walked by a tall house and felt like I was shrinking, felt small and turned corner, went by small house and felt big. NS. Felt emaciated. NS. Critical. AS.

08,03:XX:XX  Thought: There is this softness inside now, all the stuff about S. I closed off to him with a hardness around it now. I'm softening about this closing off much more at peace with him [S]. I don't have to insist on things from the past, issues between us that I would keep inside. He would go back to past - regurgitate it again - he adds and subtracts to story. I would keep the memory clear - so when he comes with a distorted picture of past I could say exactly what happened. I kept that alive and this damaging now I'm not concerned with that anymore. I am letting go of the past, I am a nice person, he is a nice person. Whatever happened, happened. Like my sister... She would do things for me, then keep bringing them up when she wanted something from me. I would get so hurt that she did that. Steve would bring up issues that he did for me and he expects something from me. [I am feeling tension in my chest talking about this] This is my pattern to hold onto things.

04,03:10:30  Still feeling "friendly."

04,03:10:30  I do not usually like bad news, but I like it even less now.

04,03:14:00  Mental irritation - pressure to get things done.
04,03:20:00 Impatience with idiosyncrasies of patients, detached, "get on with it" feeling. Things look clearer, clearer, better, fresher.

04,03:22:XX Watched the movie "The House of Spirits" in preference to favorite TV show.

05,03:91:00 Negative thoughts protruding. I had situation at work in AM struggled with negativity. Got angry, did not solution think as I usually do, but just got pissed off, or felt defeated and depressed. I began to have thoughts of desperation in business--defeat, business failure (things just aren't that bad.) I'm usually positive, but I found myself withdrawn. I kept struggling with it.

03,04:XX:XX All day feeling and saying that here isn't enough time for anything, to do anything. AS. Feeling of friendlessness - better. CS.

03,04:XX:XX Spacey, better by eating. RS.

08,04:XX:XX All the resentments I kept under the icing of Justification. I am at peace but need to keep the S. resentments to protect my self. Realized until I am at peace with S. I won't be able to move on. Satisfy - I am peaceful. Felt before I will leave because he is a Jerk or this or that. Now I can leave because it didn't work. I want to start vitamins to have him be better and I am having a cup of coffee.

06,04:00:XX (entire day) Non-eventful day, relaxed. Things seemed to go SLOW. Took longer to do things than I expected.
04,04:XX:XX Irritability rushed, pressured to get things done. Edgy with patients felt detached, feel very businesslike.

04,04:14:30 Anxiety with low back pain, etc. Fear it would prevent sleep so I took licorice as a laxative.

04,04:22:30 Feel I antidoted the remedy prior evening because I took licorice to relieve constipation. Conscience stricken.

05,04:103:00 I kept saying no to outside pressure throughout the day felt isolated, upset, tight mentally. If someone were to CN or a patient were dissatisfied, I'd get upset, tense inside. I would not say/do anything. Retreat into my office. Ate by myself, very little contact with staff and other co-workers. Very negative, nothing is working out.

04,05:XX:XX Do errands. I just get things done...odd for me. Feel guilty about possible antidoting by the licorice.

03,05:XX:XX Forgetfulness and must write things done AS 04,05:XX:XX Went to visit two Botanical gardens on the same day.

06,05:00:XX Desire to get outside all morning, felt had "housatosis" Finally got out and loved the outdoors.

08,05:14:XX I feel strong and beautiful.
03, 06:XX:XX  Mind-more focussed than usual  AS especially with working on cases Memory improved  AS

04,06:XX:XX  Anger at personal injustice - usually philosophical.

04,06:23:00  Fantasy something disgusting was creeping up on me out of the floor and creeping around my feet. Sense of disgust, had to throw out all "old food" in my refrigerator.

05,06:164:00  Have been putting up less with complacent people in my life.
Intolerance is not as great but still present. Today I put my foot down with my wife Diane. She was going to set us up with a couple for dinner who she anticipated would be difficult. I was not going to put up with it. This situation did not have to be bad. She was putting a negative spin on it and I wasn't going to leave headed into it.

04,07:XX:XX  Pervasive mood - friendlier and more outgoing, but also impatient and cooler. Anger at problems, weighed, down by chaotic class. Irritated at conversations.

06,07:00:XX  Woke tired (5:30AM), felt a little down (8:30AM) and could easily weep, but didn't. By noontime in a good mood but still tired. Day was a little cloudy, damp.
04,07:19:00 Made effort to be personable.

04,07:20:00 Tired, worn out.

06,07:22:XX 9:00AM Driving, seeing people in their cars, walking and thought, so many souls, where are they going?

08,08:XX:XX I want to have time off. I didn't see clients last week but I worked like crazy trying to get caught up. Now I feel the need to just enjoy the weather and relax.

05,08:XX:XX PM - Taught a seminar to other acupuncturists. I felt relaxed, enjoyed the interaction. I found that many of them felt victimized or out of control with "the system." (Drs, insurance co., patients) I was pushing for them to stand up for themselves for what they believe in. Stand up for themselves in their ideas and rights as practitioners. To set up systems (boundaries that help them) I am usually for this but I was a bit more evangelistic than I usually am.

07,09:XX:XX Felt foggy/sleepy the rest of the afternoon lasted for the whole proving. On the way home from watching video of a hypnosis session. Wonder if part of the trance had worn off. So much consistency. AS.
05,10:00:00 My mind felt less anxious when I'm in a bad situation - being thrown around but still helpless, vulnerable to any attack.

04,10:XX:XX Amiable, wandering around. Sleepy all day.

08,10:XX:XX I find myself more detached or more neutral with the behavior of my husband that normally causes me irritation.

07,10:08:17 6:17 AM Unloading dishes from dishwasher. Putting my plates 1 way and wondering if I'm putting them in the right place.
Whether I'm putting big plates in with small plates. NS

04,11:XX:XX Felt irritable, disappointed, and unheard. Left out of a decision process. "Too many words, tired brain" after seminar. If I hear one more theory, I'll spit at them. Embarrassing to talk about my stool (to supervisor) OS Disappointment that more people aren't interested in the proving.

05,11:00:00 is calmer and feels Ok with the urgent stuff that goes on.
Night--laying in bed with my wife felt warm and cuddly, still no sexual physical desires that are strong enough to act--but somehow its OK with me. She's not too Ok with it. Feel better in being centered, manifesting
. My wife and I had a vision together of walking down a country road together, relaxed, free. Have been noticing females sexually less.
A lot of thoughts of what evil really is my negative judging or distressing thoughts are the seat of evil.

Evil gets created by our own minds. Same feeling as an evil entity doing it to us. Image looks like the devil to me. Idea of a thought that has element of judgment, that I can see the energy that has a physical appearance of the devil. I am concentrating on sending that neg thought into the light. These thoughts create or is [are] the evil entity. I am becoming very observant about small things, my thought patterns and how my thoughts are creating these things. I am aware of these thoughts much more and am releasing this energy. this is why my liver is better because I'm not letting it go to my liver, not carrying these thoughts to my liver. feeling quite grounded, I'm a physical being, I'm here, I'm not floating. I am much more accepting of Steven's energy. His struggle shows in his face when he says something, I used to immediately judge it - but this is not happening now, I'm not judging it anymore - I'm feeling neutral, detached - it his struggle.

Busy day at clinic. Still theme of intolerance. People are taking me off my path - no doing what they say. Secretary is a complainer, so I may have to leave. It's coming down to people I have to associate with need to be carefully chosen, Feeling this a lot more, and more steadfast in my energies to change it. Not so tolerant of this stuff.

Still processing forgiveness issue. Need to move more to neutrality. Cried when running about feeling that I'm finally forgiving S. I came to feeling of total forgiveness. Commitment of not bringing it into my life anymore. Brings a lot of emotion - sadness [sadness] about the relationship also gratitude or happiness that I'm finally there at forgiveness. I feel moving toward the creator [creator] with detachment, and neutrality from the center place I have access to what is Good and positive. Desire to do mental work.

04,12:XX:XX "Brain drain" - long day - wiped out.

07,13:XX:XX Feeling kind of glum this morning. Not enthusiastic about the day. Thinking I have been having many days like this and wondering if it's me or the remedy. NS.

05,13:XX:XX Still feeling of intolerance around people--saw a busy day at the clinic. People not taking responsibility for their actions and what they say. I need to be more responsible to whom I associate with in business. If I let awful people close to me, it'll be like a virus--infected feeling, just getting tired of this stuff and unwilling to take it anymore!!!

06,13:02:XX Had insight regarding viewing a case. That the essence is always there no matter how the person presents themselves, even if they are not in their normal behavior, they are showing their 07,14:XX:XX Then haircut. FELT I LAUGHED TOO LOUD at a comment that might be taken as unfriendly or unladylike and felt bad about it. NS.

03,14:XX:XX Difficult articulation-articulation of words still not formed. NS.

08,14:XX:XX Out of nowhere a few days ago saw high heels [heel/heeled] shoes at the shoe store and wanted to wear heels which I haven't done in 19 years.

04,14:XX:XX Talking to friend on phone- she noticed that I'm nicer. I comforted her and she commented that it was unlike me to do that.

08,15:XX:XX I do not want to work. Once I start I am fine. Find pleasure in work. Being behind in accounts and things I offer people wears on me or wears me out. Right now behind with cases I offered to go over for the study groups. I feel pressured I want to get up in the mo. [morning] read inspirational Books, go for a run, eat light and delicious and be in the sun for a while.

05,15:XX:XX Last night at business meeting had to say some things that weren't very nice - but it was OK, I didn't care. I could speak my mind and set direction with person who is usually intimidating - but was able to get him to listen. But it's not important whether he gets it or not, we are going to go ahead. Stayed focussed and friendly. No tension in neck or back (it's been very strong past two weeks - like a geiger counter
- if I'm not being truthful to myself. Insight: can no longer be stored inside. My wife's family- they were super weird - distant, uncommunicative, secretive, holding. Instead of feeling angry about it I just found it odd and my wife and our kids were amused about it.

07,16:XX:XX  Note: this part was crossed out: [I am not sure I am getting anything from this remedy or maybe I am too busy to notice.] POSSIBLY MORE LIKELY TO SPEAK MY MIND (but guarding against it. What may come out might be unlikeable.) Certainly, I've had to be more introspective and check things out.

05, 17:XX:XX Stressful situation at work (patients not feeling better, it's not working, etc) I still feel like an outsider in my office, rent space.
Feels like the women's club, feel distanced by it. I can handle it, but I'm clearer that I don't need to--not the intolerance as before, but a feeling of needed change.

07,17:XX:XX Nervous before a meeting.

05, 18:XX:XX Talk to D about our separation--we work too much and are away from each other too much. Want more of a connection with my partner.
Would feel better. We talked of sexual contact, but were too tired to do anything.
05,18:XX:XX  Watch Knot's Landing special with drinking She's a mess, but somehow, I'm not intolerant. I'm OK with her habits. A shift!!

06,18:XX:XX  Thinking about proving. Feeling I am wasting my time. Thinking I am not proving the remedy and I hate putting my time in when it appears purposeless. Wish I had repeated remedy the first day and taken better notes and spending more time each day. The day goes so quickly. I'd like to do this again at another time and do it right.

06,19:XX:XX  Feeling relaxed and desire to be outdoors, got the garden going.

06,20:XX:XX  Feeling I'm always going somewhere doing something. Want to simplify things.

04,20:XX:XX  (with diarrhea and vomiting) Forlorn, emotional, I had done a piece of art work - a collage - "it hurting my brain to look at it. It made me "CRAZY" with the diarrhea -I kept imagining things coming out - worms mice. No one will help me and now wants to.

08,21:XX:XX  I feel good, centered, inspired. I have to work even though I [I'd ] rather read and 'go for runs' My body feels freer and strong [stronger]

08, Sitting at the computer [as soon as I did] tension in my neck and shoulders distressed anxious, fearful. Fearful of what; why do I feel this way? fearful that I'll make a mistake and the whole thing will be messed up [my accounts] as if I do not know enough to do my own accounting, as if some very disruptive thing [is] about to happen that will take days to fix and I do not have time. Went upstairs where there is no computer, feeling is back [EMR?] [WS].

05,22:XX:XX 12:30 AM I lay down and said, OK going to trust that good things are happening: I told the universe to get my attention. I was half asleep. Then I heard a voice: "David...DAVID!" Very clear! I jumped up and said WHAT?" Then said, "OK, if you talk to me like that I will not miss a thing." (didn't pay much attention the first time: then it got LOUD) Then fell asleep (I always read diving books and magazines before going to sleep--it put me in the right mood.

08,23:XX:XX 8:00 P.M. at the end of the day. I feel tired, body aches, not knowing if to eat, exercise or continue working: plenty of paperwork to do.

FEELING: I decide to go for a walk. I get to the woods by the water sense of oneness [N.S. - ?] [A feeling I get but more often since the remedy] I feel great. A blue heron flies from the edge of the water very close to me.

04,23:XX:XX Cancelled work. Ignored phones. Very big anxiety about money
- sadness, forlorn, "no one with any sense looks after me. - Threatened my friend to resolve the money situation.

- 04,23:XX:XX on going to bed and closing my eyes - a vision of a bleeding, beaten woman standing by the road in tatters. I'm still feeling bruised.

04,25:XX:XX Still worry about money.

08,25:XX:XX Emotionally I continue to be much more peaceful. It is my choice to keep detached from the turmoil of the negative emotions that people put out. I am able to see what I put out and work with it until it is good.

06,28:XX:XX Noticed lack of wanting to overextend myself. Usually do overabundance of things and will be committed.

05,30:XX:XX Feel like I'm making better choices. Normally have overwhelming sense responsibility. Now seem more careful and discerning 05,33:XX:XX Boundary setting continues getting better at it.

05,42:XX:XX This trip home was different. I set good boundaries with my mother (who complained about the way my brother was raising his son) she 06,60:XX:XX  Realized missing $3000 in checking account.

05,78:XX:XX  Second day of the workshop--he attacked me verbally through his translator for asking a question. During the surprise taping (video) of which he wanted to later sell. I stood my ground quietly, did not resist and found strength in passive resistance. He backed down and I had the support of the group. He was manipulating us during the last part of the workshop. Usually I react to an attack with more vigor, but this worked well. I felt good about myself and did not make it personal (of which I'm sure I would not have held up as well).

HEAD

07,00:00:00  Fleeting feeling in L temple.

04,01:09:XX  Woke with slight headache over right eye. Spasming pain in vertex. Sort of contracting - "gossamer stuff."

05,04:16:30 Neck, shoulder, back tight and stiff. NS.

04,04:20:XX Hamstring pain.
HAMSTRING TIGHTNESS.

Hamstring pain.

Phone contact at 11:00am - exhausted in afternoon energy slump 3:30-4:30 PM; extremities stiff - Tai Ch'I instructor said I felt like a stone tablet. He said I was feeling "less urgent" (in response to fist"; reaction time feels like moving? Physically feeling heavier - like stone - jaw still tightening more, neck still tightening more (these are old Symptoms but now worse).

Went to Tai Qi, continued to feel stiff in upper back and shoulders. It's referred to as "stone tablet body". Stiff and stone like, heavy, inflexible. My mind felt less anxious when I'm in a bad situation - being thrown around but still helpless, vulnerable to any attack.

Legs stiff and tight - hamstrings and quads - try to stretch out but found it difficult - even when warmed up. This is not usually the case.

Stiffness continues today. Painful, stiff and inflexible in back, especially upper back and shoulders - heavy feeling. Jaw tight but no knots.

Still tight and painful - stiff- useless feeling. I'm beginning to not like this. Took over 1 hour to loosen up. Still feel like stone.

Still feeling tight in neck, upper back; legs and jaw bothering me - crunching. Still feeling like stone - this gives me feeling of weakness and vulnerability. Notice especially in tai ch'i - pushing hands, I get topped over; like hinges in my arms and scapulae are not flexible- hinges are dry. I am bothered a lot by this feeling of vulnerability.

04,13:09:XX   Hip ached.

04,14:01:XX   Deltoid pain + weakness < raising arm. Worse on left. Arms sore and weak < left.

04,14:XX:XX  Calf cramps - felt started 3-4 D ago but suppressed.

05,14:XX:XX  Stiffness and pain in upper extremities has mostly gone, thank God! Feeling of relief. Relaxation - my normal body.

05,18:XX:XX  Tai Ch'i - relaxed, Jing power training felt good - pain in the last two weeks was getting stuck in my shoulders but now it is OK. Did kicks in class which I was able to do very well - what a contrast to the tight legs and back I had two weeks ago. I feel strong, less vulnerable, centered focus is good.

07,22:XX:XX  Fasciculation left forearm - brachioradialis were distracting.
I was working on cases. This lasted on and off throughout the evening. I noticed it while watching TV. NS.

05,34:XX:XX  Woke up stiff in lower back. I can't figure out what I did.
Pain is stiff, acute, at level of L-5, PSIS.

NAILS

08,06:XX:XX  Biting my nails while at the computer. [I used to bite my nails as a child]. OS.

08,06:19:XX  Went for a walk with my friend around 5. Pain in the medial side of knee while walking right in between the condyles of the femur/tibia.

08,10:22:00  Pain left arm, upper arm, behind or posterior aspect. Lasted a few minutes spreading in quality and 'nervy.' Needed to scratch the area to relieve it. NS.

08,14:XX:XX  For about 2 weeks shooting, ripping-like pains on [in] both feet from joint [bunion] to tip of toe or side of the nail - medial but a bit to the upper side. [I didn't register it because I thought it was the high heels - out of nowhere I wanted to wear heels again, which I haven't worn since 1978] It doesn't hurt while I wear the high heels. It hurts when I stretch the feet. < on R.

08,16:XX:XX  Sensation of crawling on L side. Upper level of scapula, between scapula and shoulder blades. Last about a minute then back again

08,17:XX:XX      Biting nails while reading   [O.S. - CHILDHOOD] [A.S. - USUALLY JUST CUTICLE].

ERUPTIONS
08,46:XX:XX      I haven't been outside a lot, but 6 or 7 days ago I got a cluster of bites on my right leg inner thigh right in the area it was itching without eruption before. Today the bites are red, swollen, raised and have a head like a blister that is almost white. The biggest is about 3/4 inch in diameter.    NS.

[Note from Prover: This eruption continued for over a month and left bluish discoloration for 3 months] 2 days ago a pair of scissors fell on my foot and the handles hit the medial aspect of the top of my foot falling right on a blood vessel and dark blood (vein) burst out. I had to hold it for over 5 minutes to stop the bleeding. Now there is a bruise about 1 inch in diameter and [it ] hurts to touch into the arch. I have been bruising a lot lately.    NS.

08,60:XX:XX      The bites on my leg continued to be red and raised and itchy.
It got a purplish color around the bites. On June 18th my lymph glands in the groin were swollen and a bit painful, related to the bites for 1 day.
Then the lymph was > the following day and the bites started to go away with the purplish tint around the where the redness and swelling was. Now four spots remain still somewhat red, but they are dry and on their way out.
